

Seminar PrInt Fiocruz-Capes 2021
Brazil-Germany: international education

9h– Opening session

- Cristiani Vieira Machado, Vice President of Education, Information and Communication of Fiocruz (Vpeic/Fiocruz)
- Paulo Marchiori Buss, General Coordinator of the Center for International Relations (Cris/Fiocruz)
- Cristina Guilam, General Coordinator of Education (Vpeic/Fiocruz)
- Vinícius Cotta, Deputy Coordinator of International Education (Vpeic/Fiocruz)
- Marcelo Pelajo, Head of the Pathology Laboratory of IOC/Fiocruz and coordinator of the Working Group Fiocruz-Germany in International Education

9h15 – The Daad (Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst/German Academic Exchange Service)

Fabíola Gerbase, deputy director of Daad in Brazil

9h30 – The Alexander von Humboldt Foundation

Mônica Santos de Freitas, teacher IBqM/UFRJ, Humboldt Scientist

9h45 – The history of Brazil-Germany interaction for the Graduate Studies

Heloísa Candia Hollnagel, director os Internacional Affairs/Capes

10h – Debate

10h15 – A lecture on the direction of views of the viewer in medical history, coming from anatomical illustrations reaching over to models, moulages and specimens

Palestrante: Thomas Schnalke, teacher Berlin Museum of Medical History at the Charité Berlin Museum of Medical History of the Charité

11h – Debate

11:30 – Concluding remarks